

Douglas E. McIntyre

Executive Chairman

Douglas McIntyre was appointed Executive Chairman of Echelon in February 2008, having been the Chief Executive Officer of Echelon since 2002. Doug McIntyre began his insurance career in 1973. From 1983 to 2000, he was General Manager and then President and Chief Executive Officer of Pafco Insurance Company (later Pembridge Insurance Company, following its acquisition by Allstate in 1998), a niche insurer specializing in non-standard auto insurance and certain specialty commercial and personal lines insurance programs.

Mr. McIntyre joined Echelon's parent, EGI Financial Holdings Inc. as its Chief Executive Officer in September 2001 and was appointed as Vice Chairman in January 2011.

Douglas McIntyre holds a Bachelor of Science (1972) degree and a Master of Business Administration.
